New session starts on June 14th, 2018!

10 weeks (3 hours per week, snacks included)

Classes held every Thursday from 9:30am-12:30pm

Children's Services Council – 2300 High Ridge Rd., Boynton Beach 33426

Whether you are looking to start over, find a New Direction, or just need to change your perspective, and you're over 25, this program is ideal for you. It can help you become the best you!

- Discover the gifts from your past
- Understand the source of personal power
- Tap into your unique ability
- Identify the ideal job for your talents and abilities
- Learn to customize your resume for each job desired
- Navigate LinkedIn and other social media to build a network, get job leads and more
- Work one-on-one with a mentor and within a group of women who are embarking on this journey with you

Weekly topics include:

- Discovering how unique and special you are through a DISC™ profile which will reveal the behavior and values you bring to the job
- Identifying your learned skills/expertise, the transferable skills you never thought to include and what you love to do and do well
- Determining the ideal job for you
- Creating a stand-out adaptable resume and cover letters
- Using social media for networking and job leads – creating a LinkedIn profile
- Learning about the power of your image
- Learning how to Dress for Success
- Having mock interviews with each other and with hiring professionals
- Meeting industry experts

New Directions* is free of charge to women who are over 25, job ready, seeking employment and can be referred by a Nonprofit agency in Palm Beach County.
